There's nothing quite like the crunch of fresh sweet corn or a juicy summer kissed tomato.

All winter we wait. Let your taste buds relish in fresh fruits and vegetables picked at the peak of the growing season at one of the many farmers markets in Union County. Not only will you get lost in summer memories as you savor treats from your neighbors farm, but you'll support local farm families working hard to make your dinner delicious.

WE ACCEPT MORE THAN CASH!

STOP BY THE INFORMATION BOOTH TO UTILIZE THESE PROGRAMS

SNAP/OHIO DIRECTION CARD (EBT)

Swipe your SNAP/Ohio Direction Card (EBT) for tokens. Each token is equal to $1. Anything you can purchase in the grocery store with your EBT card you can buy at the market with tokens. No change can be given. These are only good at the market where you received them. They do not transfer across farmers markets.

SENIOR FARMERS MARKET NUTRITION PROGRAM

Senior farmers market nutrition program cards are available through Ohio Department of Aging. Cards can be used in any increment and qualifying individuals can use the funds on fruits, vegetables, herbs and honey. Cards are redeemed directly with participating farmers.

PRODUCE PERKS

When you use your SNAP/EBT card, the market will match up to $25 in Produce Perk tokens per card each market day. You can purchase fruits, vegetables and food producing plants with produce perks. No change will be given.

WIC VOUCHERS

WIC vouchers are distributed by your local WIC office and are given directly to participating farmers. Vouchers can be used to purchase fruits, vegetables or herbs.
